Columbus vs. Augusta.

Columbus vs. Augusta.

ISPECIAL TO THE APPEAL. Ga., August 10 .- Columbus defeated Augusta in a poorry placed game, badly umpired by DeFrance. The first part of the game was given to Columbus by gross umpiring, the latter innings being equally had in favor of Augusta, though not extending far enough to give Augusta the game. The score stood 5 to 0 in favor of Columbus at one time, right moment. What sort of liquor it ul-and when Augusta got within one run of Columbus, DeFrance called the game on account of darkness, though there was plenty of light to finish. Score by in-Runs earned-Augusta, 1. Total ba

NEW YORK, August 10 .- The weather BIDS was fine and the attendance very large at Monmouth Park to-day. The great event of the day was the defeat of Miss Woodford, with the greatest case, by the A FRAME SCHOOL-HOUSE, on Austien street. Chelsea, will be received at the office of C. C Western horse, Freeland. He demonstrated the superiority in such a definite way as to leave the admirers of the exqueen of the turf nothing to urge in ex-tenuation. The Western men also car-JAMES DEGNAN. ried off the champion stallion stakes with their horse Ban Fox, who proved himself incontestably the best two year old of the season. Both victories were Chairgan School Grounds and Boildings.
